In the shop, there will be some wood blanks from Redmill Timber once again, and I think Keith Harte is bringing some more laburnum. There may be some other blanks available as well. I have received a new order of Chestnut products to replenish stocks.

Chuck bargains

There are some very attractive special offers on Nova Pro-tek chucks at the moment, from Turners Retreat "Blue Moon" offer. It ends on 31/10/23. A genuine 30% off, and free postage (as the chucks are still over the postage limit). Free inserts allow the chuck to fit most lathe spindles. You can never have too many chucks!

In the absence of any submissions this week, here are some burr clocks from me. The first is burr oak, with wenge beading around the clock face. The other two are burr elm.
