News Bulletin 50 – 10 December 2023

Hello all

Annual Club Competition and social evening – Thursday 7 December

Firstly my apologies for the review of the year not appearing on Zoom. The internet service in the hall was down one again. I am investigating the reasons why with the hall manager. He tells me it was still down on Friday, and he is pressing Vodafone for answers. The review will appear on YouTube once I have added the photos from Thursday evening.

We had an excellent turnout, probably a record for these events, with 39 members and 7 guests – 10 more than last year. There were 48 pieces entered in the competitions over the three levels – 10 more than last year - and 19 entrants in the Chairman's Challenge.

Beginners	1 st	Adrian Armsby	Laburnum box
	2 nd	Brian Smith	Apple
	3 rd	Mal Gladman	Yew bowl
Intermediate	1 st	Christine Addley	Miniature stool
	2 nd	Peter Howells	Salt and pepper snowmen
	3 rd	John Lund	Large platter
Advanced	1 st	Brian Wrigglesworth	Spiral form
	2 nd	Martyn Weller	Segmented lighthouse
	3 rd	Geoff Walker	Small hollow form

Chairman's challenge	Martyn Weller	Compartmentalised jarrah box

Thanks to Phil Coe for organising the buffet, Ann and Sue for helping with catering, Phill and Elaine as always for manning the shop, Geoff for the Yorkshire people picture quiz, Lance for the Woodturning Crossword, John for Challenging us, Darren for acting as press photographer for the awards, and Ian and Phil for being, as always, last men out of the hall having cleared everything away.

4 January 2024

Next month's meeting starts our new year with enrolment, and an open evening for all – free entry for members and guests. More details in next week's bulletin.

Axminster Tools

I notice Axminster have a free delivery offer on until 15 December – worth having a look at what they have in stock for you.
